

Please don't dilute the telephone privacy act. It has made life so much better without the annoying phone calls. I don't want anything less than what I have now. Please don't go to the Federal standards. Hoosiers deserve better.